STEWARDS' NOTICE -

Racing

New Zealand Kennel Cough Outbreak

Restrictions on New Zealand Greyhounds

From 12:01am, Monday 21 December 2020, the following restrictions apply to all relevant greyhounds from New Zealand.

- (1) In this Notice:
 - “a New Zealand greyhound” means a greyhound domiciled or kept in New Zealand before that greyhound entered Australia;
 - “prohibition period” is the period of 21 consecutive days from a New Zealand greyhound’s arrival in Australia;
 - “quarantine period” is the period of 21 consecutive days a greyhound must be kept at a registered kennel in South Australia (upon the greyhound’s arrival to that kennel), always separated from other greyhounds, unless that period is varied by prior written approval from Greyhound Racing SA Limited (GRSA).
- (2) A New Zealand greyhound must not enter South Australia within the prohibition period, without prior written approval from GRSA.
- (3) A registered person taking custody of a New Zealand greyhound within the prohibition period must ensure the greyhound is domiciled or kept for the quarantine period.
- (4) A New Zealand greyhound must not be nominated for any event, or taken to any facility, in South Australia within the prohibition or quarantine period, without prior written approval from GRSA.
- (5) A registered person must apply in writing to GRSA for the relevant prior written approval,
 - (i) no less than 5 clear business days before the day the approval is sought; and,
 - (ii) include evidence from a Veterinary Surgeon of the current health of the New Zealand Greyhound.
- (6) A registered person must keep a written record of the quarantine period and produce that record when required by GRSA.

This Notice expires at 11:59pm 31 March 2021, unless revoked or extended. This policy is consistent with Greyhound Racing Victoria policy, issued 19 December 2020.
