FULL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The Produce is a Special Event, non-penalty Series.
- The Produce Stake is conducted by the Gawler Greyhound Racing Club ("The Club") and is supported by Greyhound Racing South Australia.
- Open to all greyhounds whelped in 2018, irrespective of where bred or owned.
- A futurity event and all payments must be made to remain eligible for the Series.
- Each nomination payment must be sent by the owner to reach Greyhound Racing South Australia (acting on behalf of the Club) by the due closing dates. It is the responsibility of the Owner to note each nomination payment date and make sure the correct fee is paid by each closing date. GRSA will send out reminder notices and nomination forms prior to each payment, but will not be held responsible for nomination forms not being received under any circumstances. The Owner must also notify GRSA of any change in ownership or address.

- Once a nomination payment has been made, it is not refundable under any circumstances.
- Nominations will only be accepted if made on the correct form with correct details and ear brands included.
- The 2020 Series will be run over 531m at Gawler. The Club reserves the right to alter this distance if any alterations are made to the track or if the venue has to be changed for any reason.
- Heats will be run at a race meeting and will be drawn with guards on Identical Owners and Trainers. Guards will depend on the number of runners each Owner or Trainer has entered.
- Un-raced greyhounds will be eligible to compete in the Heats.
- Semi-Finalists will be determined as per Greyhound Rules of Racing. Consolation runners will be determined by finishing positions in the Semi-Finals, then the Heats as per the aforementioned Rules. Any greyhound which competed in the Heats is eligible for the Consolation.
- In the event of insufficient nominations being received, the Club has the right to run Heats and Final only. The number of Semi-Finals will be determined after the number of Heats are known.
- Gawler Greyhound Racing Club reserves the right to alter these conditions.
