

Position Vacant

Animal Welfare Officer

Date Listed: March 24, 2014

- Professional Team Environment
- Dynamic Organisation
- Outstanding Opportunity

Greyhound Racing South Australia (GRSA) is seeking an enthusiastic professional to join an experienced team working in a dynamic and challenging environment. GRSA Ltd is the controlling body which conducts, regulates and promotes greyhound racing throughout the state. It services more than 300 race meetings held annually at venues across metropolitan, regional and rural South Australia.

This role requires someone with a high level of integrity and a strong commitment to Animal Welfare and will include responsibility for:

- The compliance of GRSA Code of Practice relating to Licensed persons for racing and breeding
- Liaison with individuals or organisations, to positively promote animal welfare and to resolve issues
- Contribution to the establishment and implementation of breeding protocols
- Assistance with Chairing inquiries into alleged breaches of the Rules

To add value in this role, the appointee will need to contribute effectively to the following outcomes:

- Mitigation of risks associated with a negative community perception of greyhound racing
- Establishment of GRSA as a national leader in the management of animal welfare issues
- Diligent management of Inquiries and related appeal processes
- Demonstration of a high level of communication skills to achieve outcomes

The right candidate will have qualifications and experience that lends themselves to success in the role. The capacity to drive Animal Welfare with full accountability will constitute a key strength of your application. Demonstration of personal drive and evidence of leadership experience will also be highly regarded.

A racing industry background will be favorably considered but is not an essential requirement.
